Communication Planning

Communication Methods & Tools

Today there are multiple tools available to school districts to push their message/s out, but districts should strive for two-way communication when it is most needed. List all of the communication tools and methods at your district's disposal and determine if they allow for two-way communication.

Tool or Method	One or two-way communication?

Lead – Develop -- Support