

Missouri Association of School Administrators

Honorary Life Member

2015

To the extent that we can identify school administrators who are retiring, MASA will present an honorary life membership card and include each retiree's name in the Awards Program Booklet at our MASA Awards Banquet during the MASA Spring Conference. To qualify for this honor, retirees must be a member of MASA at the time of their retirement. Retirees who will be present at the Awards Banquet will receive their membership cards at that time, those unable to attend will have their card mailed to them.

If you are retiring this year, please fill out the information requested below and return it to the MASA office as soon as possible but not later than February 1.
