Advertising Specifications and Rates

Deadline

The deadline for advertising in this publication is Nov. 1, 2012. The publication will be distributed to all members of MASA in December.

The Missouri Association of School Administrators is publishing its annual pictorial directory of members. The organization represents over 500 (97%) of the school superintendents in the state. The directory will include member information, committee listings, and other association information. The four-color cover and professional design printed by Inter-State Studios & Publishing Co. will make this a publication which school administrators will keep many years.
