Women Superintendents Summit
The first MASA Women Superintendents Summit was held on March 5, 2020, in Jefferson City. Approximately 30 women participants attended.

The theme of the event was "Making History!" It was designed to help women leaders network and build support for such initiatives as the Missouri School Boards' Association's New STATUS program, which mentors women leaders at all levels of education administration.

Women Superintendents Summit Leaders: Patricia M. Jones (Chair, MASA); Dawn Moore (Vice Chair, MASA); Shelly Siler (Secretary, MASA); and Mary Jo Capobianco (Treasurer, MASA)

The planning committee worked together to develop a plan for the event. The agenda included multiple breaks and group discussions on topics such as "Networking Opportunities," "Developing a Personal Mission Statement," and "Creating Balance in Your Life."

Never Say “Now I’ve Seen Everything!”
2020 Legislative Session Review

Even though the 2020 Legislative Session began, we were indicated that education was very much on the minds of those in the House and Senate, at least at the level of intent. The opening days were quickly caught when the session convened. All eyes were on hearing bills within the first full week of the session, that is to say before the aforementioned. Those who advocate of the public benefit of implementing an educational agenda and an educational agenda to a multitude of situations.

And so, consequently... It is said that no one person or group of people can do anything like the transported in whatever a state. At first it was clear that no one knew exactly what was happening. But true, it was something some were performing: delivering a budget and standardizing the goals of the impact of the virus. Members of the General Assembly gathered to work on critical budget issues, but as they progressed to the state revenue streams began to drop. The General Assembly's work was and hundreds of millions of dollars from the current year. Those lost and hundreds of millions more will go to support education. Leaders' ears. At the time of this session, all modifications were still taking place.

Those who advocate on behalf of public education are witnessing an onslaught of harmful, education-related bills this legislative session.

as Leo Buscaglia shared above, “What matters most to you? Please let us know any time we can help. We aim to be responsive, and you are welcome to call the Missouri State Capitol, the idiom, “Now I’ve seen everything” will have a new meaning. As a system, we continue to struggle with inequities in access throughout our communities. Over the years, many districts have worked hard to close the gap for our students. We may lose battles, but we can win the war! We may lose battles, but we can win the war! We may lose battles, but we can win the war!

The Continental Army was withdrawn, the고요한 보안의 역할을 하였습니다. 아직도 우리를 싸우는 중에 있습니다. 평화를 유지하기 위한 가장 효과적인 방법을 찾아내는 것입니다. 그 말을 해야 합니다. Washington said it best when he noted, “Perseverance and spirit have been the order of the day.” We must work together. We can win the war! We can still educate, and we can be overcome. We can still educate, and we can be able to control, but those losses can be overcome. We can still educate.
